DPEC Mission Statement

All proceeds from the outing support the DPEC, a non-profit, charitable organization committed to the ideals of understanding and community – those principles that are part of the legacy of the late Wall Street Journal reporter Daniel Pearl, who was kidnapped and later murdered by extremists in Pakistan in early 2002. The DPEC is a 501(c)(3) non-profit charitable organization.

The DPEC sponsors a wide range of community outreach programs, including an annual multi-cultural trip for area teens to the US Holocaust Memorial Museum; a college scholarship program at East Brunswick High School; an annual Daniel Pearl World Music Day celebration; a speaker and film series; “teaching tolerance” workshops for area teachers; and more.

A day of fun ... and all for a good cause

If you enjoy playing golf or playing canasta, mah-jongg or board games, come join us for a day of fun and food – all to benefit the work of the Daniel Pearl Education Center.

The $150 golf fee includes green fees, electric cart, locker room facilities, lunch, beverages, dinner and awards.

The $30 canasta/mah-jongg/board game fee includes an afternoon of games with lunch. Dinner is an additional $30.

Golfers are expected to wear traditional golf attire for the event. Outside food and beverages are not permitted on the course.

Canasta/mah-jongg/board game players are asked to bring their own game supplies.
